

Join us at the 30th Annual May Day Trauma Conference

Reflect, Celebrate and Look Forward

Who: Calling for high-quality healthcare vendors and service providers who want to connect with a diverse group of over 300 healthcare professionals including emergency services personnel, physicians, nurses, healthcare administrators, allied health and other first response and preparedness personnel.

When: May 1 – 2, 2019

Where: William and Ida Friday Center, 100 Friday Center Drive Chapel Hill, NC 27517

What: Tar Heel Trauma's annual May Day Trauma Conference is a two-day showcase of Trauma Services' industry trends, research and best practices. With two full days of speaker presentations and panels, attendees will hear from outstanding faculty members and nationally recognized experts across the continuum of care.

Why: This is your organization's opportunity to educate industry specific healthcare professionals on the great work you are doing and how your products or services can assist them in providing the highest quality of care. Vendors are stationed in the Friday Center's beautiful exhibit hall, and at least four hours of the conference agenda includes dedicated time for participants to visit vendors' booths.
